Step 5. AISL Harrow Scholarships Selection Panel Review (19 February 2027 to 12 March 2027)

The documents hereabove listed as 3.8, the School Academic Assessment, and the online interview records will be collated and organised for Selection Panel Review.

The Selection Panel will recommend a list of recommended applicants for the Scholarships to the AISL Foundation Office for the AISL Executive Committee.

Step 6. AISL Executive Committee Decision (March 2027)

The AISL Executive Committee shall determine the final selection of applicants for the AISL Harrow Scholarships, based on the recommendations provided by the Selection Panel.

3.9. Selection Criteria

3.9.1. Selection of AISL Harrow Scholars will be based on the following.

a) School Academic Assessment (60%)

- Performance at the top quartile of the normal academic scholarship criteria of the AISL Harrow School to which the applicant applies, measured by entrance tests, subject specific tests, prior academic records, and references, and through interviews with the senior academic members of AISL and the School.

b) Online Interview and Quality of Personal Statement (30%)

- Evident ability in, and strong commitment to various aspects of school life, in addition to academic attainment.

- The Personal Statement will be evaluated for clarity, feasibility, and alignment with the Scholarship's aim of nurturing talents.

- Passion for academic attainment and extra-curricular achievements.

- Personal Quality and Upside Potential
  - Personal attributes
  - Clear and visionary goals
  - Leadership quality
  - Communication skills
  - Creativity and innovativeness
  - Potential value-added

c) Contribution to the applied AISL Harrow School and the wider community (10%)

- Applicants must articulate how they will contribute to the applied AISL Harrow School (e.g., thought-leadership, peer mentoring, or showcasing talents in school events).

- Applicants' commitment to serve the wider community will also be considered.

3.9.2. A Code of Practice acts as guidance to members of Selection Panel in discharging the responsibilities placed on them in assessing applications, and sets out the proper conduct expected of them.

3.9.3. The AISL Harrow Selection Panel, with administrative support from the AISL Foundation Office, will recommend of a list of up to 10 recommended applicants, ranked, to the AISL Executive Committee.

3.10. Scholarship Results (March 2027)

3.10.1. The AISL Harrow Scholarships results will be informed by the offered AISL Harrow School via email.

3.10.2. A successful applicant may be offered, at the absolute discretion of the AISL Executive Committee, one of the three AISL Harrow Schools selected by the applicant in his/her application, which may or may not be his/her first or second choice of school.

3.10.3. Final selected pupils, who accept and confirm the Scholarship, will be designated as 'AISL Harrow Scholars'.

3.10.4. If a successful applicant declines the scholarship offer, the AISL Executive Committee may offer his/her place to another applicant as it sees fit.

3.10.5. AISL Harrow Scholars will be recognised in a Hall of Fame within each AISL Harrow School.

3.10.6. The Talent Collective Gala Dinner will be hosted on Saturday 29 May 2026 to recognise our Scholars and Talent Awardees.

3.11. The AISL Harrow Scholarship 2027-29 will conclude no later than August 2029.

4. Terms and Conditions For Acceptance of the Scholarship

4.1. The acceptance of Scholarships is conditional upon adherence to all obligations, as well as educational activities and community service required by AISL, AISL Foundation and the designated AISL Harrow School.

[Appendix 4 (1). Terms and conditions for acceptance of the Scholarship]

4.2. AISL, AISL Foundation and the designated AISL Harrow School shall have the continuing authority to audit and monitor the Scholars' performance and progress.

4.3. The Scholar shall, throughout his/her time as a Scholar at the designated AISL Harrow School, uphold high standards of academic performance and imbue his/her conduct with the core values of AISL Harrow education. The Scholar accepts that the Scholarship may be terminated at any time if and when his/her academic performance or conduct is considered unsatisfactory; or when he/she for any reason withdraws from his/her current education programme; or if he/she has engaged or is engaging in acts or acting that are likely to constitute or cause the occurrence of offences endangering national security or which would otherwise be contrary to the interest of national security.

4.4. Financial Arrangements with Awardees

4.4.1. The financial year of AISL Foundation is from 1st August to 31st July next year.

4.4.2. AISL Foundation is authorised by an AISL Harrow Scholar to pay his/her tuition and boarding fees to the participating AISL Harrow School on his/her behalf during the two-year term of the Scholarship whenever the same is due.

4.4.3. The Scholarships will not cover other expenses at the school (the 'Other Expenses'), including but not limited to: examination fees, uniform, catering, residential and day trip fees, books and equipment, transport to/from the school and insurance.

4.4.4. If an AISL Harrow Scholar requires financial assistance for any of these Other Expenses, they can apply to his/her School for a bursary or other forms of financial support. AISL Harrow Schools shall have absolute discretion in deciding whether or not to grant any bursary or financial support to the pupil.

4.5. Termination and Repayment

4.5.1. AISL Executive Committee reserves the right and discretion to terminate the Scholarships and demand for the Scholarship sum if the Committee is of the view that the Scholar is no longer performing up to the standards and expectations reasonably:

a) The Scholar failed to fulfil his/her obligations of the scholarships.

b) The Scholar breaches any agreed terms and conditions.

c) Claims are found to be fraudulent.

d) Submitted materials are deemed falsified, inauthentic, or raise concerns regarding intellectual property.

e) External circumstances render continuation untenable.

f) Any other circumstances deemed relevant by the AISL Executive Committee.

4.5.2. AISL Foundation reserves the right to request repayment from Scholars in the event that termination is determined.

5. Handling of Information and Personal Data

5.1. The information and personal data provided to AISL, AISL Foundation and AISL Harrow Schools for the AISL Harrow Scholarships will be used and/or disclosed by the AISL Foundation Office to relevant parties to process the application as well as for related purposes, such as conducting selection interviews, monitoring of progress, etc.

AISL HARROW SCHOLARSHIP
Appendix 2.2(1). Scope of Service of Selection Panel

Panel members are entrusted with the duty of evaluating nominations and selecting scholars. This service includes:

1. Review of Applications: Examine submitted information from the applicants, including supporting documentation, portfolios, and the recordings of online interviews, to assess merit against established criteria. Each Selection Panel member is expected to review not more than 30 entries.

   Timeframe: February 2027 to March 2027

2. Adherence to Selection Criteria: Applying the predefined selection criteria with fairness, avoiding any personal bias or external influence.

3. Recommendations: Contributing ideas and feedback to the selection process, rationale for decisions, and any recommendations for future awards cycles.

The AISL Foundation Office shall offer administrative support, including access to secure platforms for document sharing and communication, to facilitate the Panel's work.

(September 2026)

AISL HARROW SCHOLARSHIPS
Appendix 2.2(2). Code of Practice of Selection Panel

This Code of Practice describes the standards of transparency by which the AISL Foundation embodies the principles of equity, integrity, and confidentiality for all who are involved in the assessment of submissions. The Code is intended to act as guidance to Members of Selection Panel in discharging the responsibilities placed on them in assessing submissions, and sets out the proper conduct expected of them.

Information for Members of Selection Panel

1. Confidentiality: Those who undertake the assessment of submissions are required to give an undertaking that all information acquired in the discharge of their duties be kept confidential and not be transmitted to any persons other than in accordance with the prescribed procedures for the selection process. All reasonable steps must be taken to ensure that such information is kept in a secure place and, in due course, disposed of in a secure fashion (or returned to the Foundation). Information provided to Members of Selection Panel in an application for scholarships may only be used for the purposes of evaluating the submission in accordance with the Foundation's guidelines.

2. Conflict of Interest: Those who undertake the responsibility of assessing applications for scholarships, either in writing or through the AISL Executive Committee, are required to declare actual or potential conflicts of interest and observe the following guidelines:

   2.1. Personal connections: Where an application involves a family member, Members of Selection Panel are required to declare any conflict of interest to the AISL Foundation Office, so that the Members of Selection Panel shall abstain from participating in the evaluation of that particular application.

   If Members of Selection Panel are unsure whether their ability to assess an application is compromised in any way, they should inform the AISL Foundation Office of the relevant circumstances so that guidance can be sought on individual cases. A log of such incidents shall be retained for the regular scrutiny of the AISL Executive Committee.

3. Fair Evaluation: Members of Selection Panel are normally drawn from the Foundation's network, and it is expected that they will be able to evaluate the applicants sent to them. In exceptional circumstances, Members of Selection Panel may request that papers be sent confidentially outside the network, to ensure that submissions on the margins of the Foundation's remit are properly and scrupulously evaluated. In all cases, Members of Selection Panel must submit the request for additional assessment through the AISL Foundation Office to ensure that the chosen advisers receive the necessary instructions about assessment criteria particular to the relevant programme, and a copy of this Code of Practice. Any supplementary advisers are required to abide by its provisions.

AISL HARROW SCHOLARSHIPS
Appendix 3.7(2). Code of Practice for Applicants

This Code of Practice describes the standards of transparency by which the AISL Foundation abides in administering applications for AISL Harrow Scholarships. This provides guidance to applicants to ensure clarity and fairness in the submission process.

Information for Applicants

1. Eligibility and Submission Process:

1.1. Applicant must:

a) Be born between 1 September 2010 and 31 August 2011.

b) Completing GCSE/IGCSE study (or equivalent) before August 2026. Offers are conditional on at least eight (8) grades at 7 or above.

c) Where boarding is available, enrol as a full boarding student for the two-year duration of the scholarship period.

d) Be academically outstanding and fluent English speaking, listening, reading and writing.

e) Meet the specific admissions eligibility of individual schools.

1.2. Submissions must adhere to the information, including deadlines, format, and required documentation, as outlined on the Foundation's website at www.aislfoundation.org/aisl-harrow-scholarships.

1.3. Incomplete or late submissions will not be considered.

2. Transparency and Fairness: AISL Foundation is committed to ensuring that all submissions are evaluated fairly and impartially. Applicants can expect their submissions to be assessed by qualified experts in accordance with the Foundation's criteria. The selection process is conducted with transparency, and applicants will be notified of the outcome in a timely manner.

3. Confidentiality of Submissions: All materials submitted for the AISL Harrow Scholarships will be treated with strict confidentiality. Applicants are assured that their personal data and submission content will only be used for the purpose of evaluating their application and will not be disclosed to unauthorised parties, in compliance with the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance of Hong Kong.

4. Intellectual Property Statement: All applicants shall retain ownership of their intellectual property submitted for consideration in the AISL Harrow Scholarships. Applicants warrant that their submissions are original, do not infringe upon the rights of any third party, and are accurately attributed to the original creator(s) and/or teammate(s). The AISL Foundation shall not be liable for any claims, damages, or consequences arising from misinformation, misrepresentation, or infringement in the submitted works. The Foundation reserves the right to verify the authenticity and accuracy of submissions and may disqualify any entry found to contain misleading or infringing content. All publications or promotions by the AISL Harrow Scholarships will appropriately acknowledge the original creator(s) and/or teammate(s), subject to the Foundation's discretion to ensure compliance with applicable laws.

5. Declaration of Conflicts: Applicants are required to disclose any relationships or affiliations that may constitute a conflict of interest with members of selection panel or the Foundation's member of staff, such as prior collaborations or familial ties.

6. Feedback and Appeals: AISL Foundation and members of the Selection Panel do not provide feedback to applicants. Decisions on scholarships are final, and appeals are not considered.

AISL HARROW SCHOLARSHIPS
Appendix 4(1). Terms and conditions for acceptance of the Scholarship

1. INTERPRETATION

1.1 AISL Foundation is the charitable arm of Asia International School Limited (AISL).

1.2 Asia International School Limited (AISL) has been a leading provider of education services in Asia since 1998. The AISL Harrow family of schools comprises AISL Harrow International Schools, AISL Harrow LiDe Schools, AISL Harrow Hong Kong Children School, and AISL Harrow Little Lions Early Years Centres (collectively the "AISL Harrow Schools", each an "AISL Harrow School").

1.1. Types of AISL Harrow Scholarships includes the following:

a) AISL Harrow Scholarships for scholars selected to any AISL Harrow Schools, funded by AISL Foundation.

b) AISL Harrow Belt and Road Scholarships — Designated scholarships for scholars selected to AISL Harrow LiDe Schools in Chinese Mainland, funded by AISL Foundation.

c) Designated scholarships for scholars selected to AISL Harrow International School Hong Kong, funded by the School's scholarship fund.

d) Designated scholarships for scholars selected to AISL Harrow International School Appi, Japan, funded by the School's development company.

1.3 "Scholars" refers to the pupils who are selected for the scholarships hereabove mentioned, administered by AISL Foundation.

2. RECOGNITION

2.1 Scholars will be formally recognised at the Talent Collective Gala Dinner, at his/her school's Speeches & Prizes Day, and/or at another appropriate event.

2.2 AISL Harrow Schools will maintain a 'Hall of Fame' which will record each AISL Harrow Scholar's name, House, and the year in which he/she completes his/her studies.

3. OBLIGATIONS OF SCHOLARS

3.1 AISL Harrow Scholars undertake to:

a) Remain enrolled for a minimum of two (2) academic years: Upon acceptance of the AISL Harrow Scholarship, the Scholar undertakes to remain enrolled as a pupil at the AISL Harrow School for a minimum period of two (2) academic years, commencing from the start of the subsequent academic term.

Scholars must notify the AISL Foundation Office promptly of any changes in circumstances that may affect eligibility, such as relocation or cessation of scholarship-related activities.

b) Pursuit academic attainment: Consistently demonstrate high academic attainment and dedication in their academic studies.

Maintain high standards of engagement across the curriculum, participating fully in AISL, AISL Foundation and school activities.

c) Contribute to the community: Actively lead and participate in school activities to foster a culture of academic excellence and skill-sharing, organising sharing sessions and workshops, or performing in school productions.

d) Represent the School positively: Serve as an ambassador for the Scholarships by exhibiting good behaviour, and professionalism in events, competitions, and exhibitions.

During the period of five years after his/her completion of education from an AISL Harrow School, be willing to speak upon invitation by AISL at its events and conferences to share his/her education experience and personal development during his/her studies at the AISL Harrow School.

e) Submit an Education Report: Scholars are required to submit an Education Report at the conclusion of the AISL Harrow Scholarship, due in June of their Year 13 (equivalent to Grade 12), following the relevant requirements.

3.2 AISL Harrow Scholars' parents shall:

a) Support and encourage your child in all aspects of school life.

b) Treat members of the school community reasonably and respectfully, upholding the values and good name of the School.

c) Comply fully with this Terms and Conditions and other school policies and guidelines.

d) Settle and be fully responsible for all of the student's costs and expenses at the school not covered by the scholarship.

3.3 The acceptance of Scholarships is conditional upon adherence to all obligations, as well as educational activities and community service required by AISL, AISL Foundation and the designated AISL Harrow School.

3.4 AISL Foundation shall have the continuing authority to audit and monitor the Scholars' performance and progress.

3.5 The Scholar shall, throughout his/her time as a Scholar at the designated AISL Harrow School, uphold high standards of academic performance and imbue his/her conduct with the Core Values of AISL Harrow education. The Scholar accepts that the Scholarship may be terminated at any time if and when his/her academic performance or conduct is considered unsatisfactory; or when he/she for any reason withdraws from his/her current education programme; or if he/she has engaged or is engaging in acts or acting that are likely to constitute or cause the occurrence of offences endangering national security or which would otherwise be contrary to the interest of national security.

4. FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS WITH AWARDEES

4.1 The financial year of AISL Foundation is from 1st August to 31st July next year.

4.2 AISL Foundation is authorised by an AISL Harrow Scholar to pay his/her tuition and boarding fees to the participating AISL Harrow School on his/her behalf during the two-year term of the Scholarship whenever the same is due.

4.3 The Scholarships will not cover other expenses at the school (the 'Other Expenses'), including but not limited to: examination fees, uniform, catering, residential and day trip fees, books and equipment, transport to/from the school and insurance.

4.4 If an AISL Harrow Scholar requires financial assistance for any of these Other Expenses, they can apply to his/her School for a bursary or other forms of financial support. AISL Harrow Schools shall have absolute discretion in deciding whether or not to grant any bursary or financial support to the pupil.

5. TERMINATION AND REFUND OF SCHOLARSHIPS

5.1 AISL Executive Committee reserves the right and discretion to terminate the Scholarships and/or demand for the Scholarship sum if the Committee is of the view that the Scholar is no longer performing up to the standards and expectations reasonably:

a) The Scholar failed to fulfil his/her obligations of the scholarships.

b) The Scholar breaches any agreed terms and conditions.

c) Claims are found to be fraudulent.

d) Submitted materials are deemed falsified, inauthentic, or raise concerns regarding intellectual property.

e) External circumstances render continuation untenable.

f) Any other circumstances deemed relevant by the AISL Executive Committee.

5.2 In the event that the Scholar chooses to quit the School without completion of the programme he or she enrolled in, he or she shall return to the School the entire sum of scholarship already awarded.
